DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the means for maintaining the at least one trough taught against the mattress and bedding being hook and loop fasteners, ties and snaps must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 and 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 2,139,698 to Schreiber.

In reference to claim 1, Schreiber discloses a cover to hold a studio couch (e.g., a futon) and bedding comprising a top portion, at least one trough in communication with the top portion and means for maintaining the at least one trough taught against the mattress and bedding.

As concerns claim 2, said means for maintaining the at least one trough taught against the mattress and bedding is also a means for maintaining the top portion taught against the mattress.

As concerns claim 3, the at least one trough is four troughs, see Fig. 6.

As concerns claim 4, said means for maintaining the at least one trough against the mattress and bedding is elastic, see Fig. 6.

As concerns claim 8, the four troughs are joined together to remain taught underneath the mattress and bedding.

As concerns claim 9, the four troughs are joined together via elastic, see Fig. 6.

Art Unit: 3673

As concerns claim 10, the four troughs are joined together via one radius emanating from each corner formed between every two of the four troughs.

As concerns claim 11, said four troughs are held together via elastic disposed along the edge of each of the four troughs, see Fig. 6.

As concerns claim 12, the four troughs are joined together via elastic, see Fig. 6.

As concerns claim 13, the four troughs are joined together via one radius emanating from each corner formed between every two of said four troughs.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schreiber in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,631,528 to Landry.

Schreiber discloses the claimed invention except for the means for maintaining the at least one trough taught against the mattress and bedding is hook and loop type fasteners, ties and snaps. However, Landry discloses at col. 4, lines 34-36, that hook and loop fastening materials, zippers, and any other fastening devices known to one skilled in the art may be substituted for snap fasteners. Thus, it would have been obvious to skilled in the art to substitute the elastic with hook and loop fastening material, ties or snap fasteners, since the selection of any of these well known fastening means would have been within the knowledge of one skilled in the art.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Teri Pham Luu whose telephone number is (703) 305-7421. The examiner can be best reached Monday-Friday from 6:30 am to 2:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Heather Shackelford, can be reached at (703) 308-2978.

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Technology Center 3600's facsimile number for all official papers is (703) 872-9306. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP § 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitted by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP § 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. _____) on ____ (Date)

_____

_____
(Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate)

_____
(Signature)

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP §

Art Unit: 3673

502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Communications via Internet e-mail regarding this application, other than those under 35 U.S.C. 132 or which otherwise require a signature, may be used by the applicant and should be directed to heather.shackelford@uspto.gov.

All Internet e-mail communications will be made of record in the application file. PTO employees do not engage in Internet communications where there exists a possibility that sensitive information could be identified or exchanged unless the record includes a properly signed expressed waiver of the confidentiality requirements of 35 U.S.C. 122. This is more clearly set forth in the Interim Internet Usage Policy published in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark on February 25, 1997 at 1195 OG 89.

Information regarding the status of an application may be obtained from the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system. Status information for published applications may be obtained from either Private PAIR or Public PAIR. Status information for unpublished applications is available through Private PAIR only. For more information about the PAIR system, see <http://pair-direct.uspto.gov>.
